

YZU Regulations Governing the Establishment of Distinguished Professor

Passed by the 8th Administrative Committee of the 2018 School Year, November 28, 2018

Amended by the 2nd Administrative Committee of the 2020 School Year, August 25, 2020

Amended by the 6th Administrative Committee of the 2022 School Year, October 12, 2022

Article 1 “YZU Regulations Governing the Establishment of Distinguished Professor” (hereafter, ‘these regulations’) are established to commend the outstanding performance and remarkable contributions of the University’s faculty in teaching, academic research, and industry applications; as well as to enhance the standards of teaching, academia, and industry.

Article 2 Distinguished Professor shall be the full-time faculty at the University and must have achieved one of the following qualifications:

1. Professors who were awarded as [Yu-hsiang Lecturer] in the previous year;
2. Professors who have consistently led or participated in research teams and have demonstrated outstanding performance;
3. Professors who have received the University's Outstanding Teaching Award twice or more within the past five years, with at least one of the awards received during their employment position as a professor. (Those who have been awarded the National Outstanding General Education Teacher Award by the Ministry of Education will be considered equivalent to receiving the University's Outstanding Teaching Award once.)
4. Professors who have received one of the following awards: A fellow of major international learned academic societies or groups in the previous year; National Excellent Teacher Award from the Ministry of Education, Outstanding Research Award from the National Science and Technology Council, Ta-You Wu Memorial Award, Outstanding Technology Transfer Contribution Award Academia, Outstanding Paper Award for Young Scholar Development from Academia Sinica, National Industrial Innovation Award from the Ministry of Economic Affairs, National Award for Arts from National Culture and Arts Foundation, National Cultural Award from the Executive Yuan, or other awards of an equivalent level.

Article 3 Review procedure for Distinguished Professor:

1. Those who meet one of the qualifications stipulated in the first and second paragraph of Article 2 shall be recommended by their colleges according to the announced schedule and then shall be verified by the Office of Research and Development with a written evaluation.

2. Those who meet one of the qualifications stipulated in the third and fourth paragraph of Article 2 shall be recommended by their colleges according to the announced schedule and shall submit the proof of selection or award.

Those who meet the above-mentioned qualifications and have been approved by the Distinguished Professor Review Committee will be appointed with the consent of the President, as requested by the Personnel Office.

Article 4 The contract period of each term for Distinguished Professor is three years, but it shall be aligned with the start and end of each academic year.

Article 5 While recommending candidates for Distinguished Professor in each college, the following information should be provided: Personal educational and professional background, recent three-year performance and publication list of the professor or team, concrete academic research achievements, industrial application effectiveness, or contributions (with a focus on the research performance database of the University). A separate recommendation form will be provided.

Article 6 The University shall establish the Distinguished Professor Review Committee (hereafter, 'the committee') composed of 5 to 9 members who are appointed by the President and selected from the following candidates: Vice President, Director of the Office of Research and Development, Academic Lecturers, or senior professors of the University. If necessary, the members may be selected from professors and scholars outside the University with outstanding academic achievements who are recommended by colleges. The committee members shall participate in the review process; Vice President shall be designated as the convener. At least two-thirds of the members shall be present to collectively review the candidate's information at a committee meeting. Approval for recommendation can only be granted if two-thirds or more of the attending committee members vote in favor of it.

Article 7 These regulations are adopted by Administrative Committee, as shall amendments when they are made.
